PREFACE

The book of the Dead of Monmouth is a compilation of tombstone inscriptions recorded in twenty-eight cemeteries in Monmouth County, New Jersey by George Castor Martin in 1915 and 1916. Mr. Martin issued the book as a series of eight paperbound pamphlets, each with its own title-page, and then added an index to the whole set. Only thirty copies of the original work were printed.

This is the second compilation of Monmouth County burial records done by George Castor Martin to be published by the Asbury Park Public Library. In 1974 we obtained an unpublished manuscript produced by Mr. Martin and issued it under the title Burial Records of the Old First United Methodist Church, West Long Branch, New Jersey.

The National Union Catalog Pre-1956 Imprints, (London, Mansell, 1974) lists thirty publications, mostly genealogies, together with a few works on archaeology, by George Castor Martin between 1902 and 1953. Mr. Martin apparently was born in Philadelphia in 1885, spent a few years in business in Asbury Park around 1914-1922, and then moved to Texas.

This reprint edition of 250 copies of the Book of the Dead of Monmouth was designed and produced almost entirely by Catherine Cleary of Interlaken, a sophomore at Wheaton College in Norton, Massachusetts. Elizabeth Morris of the library staff assisted with typing and supervising the project. Ellen Thorne Morris, a professional genealogist from Allenhurst, suggested this project several years ago. Her steady but gentle prodding has finally produced results.

The book was produced by taking the pages of the original book and using them to cut mimeograph stencils on an electronic stencil cutter. The book was mimeographed on twenty weight mimeo bond paper. Clayton Press of Asbury Park kindly donated the use of their heavy-duty stapler to fasten the book together.
